Diagram illustrating the structure of the Hebrew word לְעוֹם (Le'om), which means "nation" or "people".

The word is composed of the letters ל (Lamed), ע (Ayin), and וֹם (Vav + Mem).

Labels and arrows indicate specific parts:

- "Crownlet" (כִּתּוּב) points to the ע (Ayin) letter.
- "Tittle" (κεφαλα) points to the כ (Kaph) letter.
- "Jot" (ιώτα) points to the י (Yod) letter.

Below the word, the text קוֹצוֹ שֶׁל יוֹד (Kotzo shel Yod) is written, indicating the "tail" or "end" of the word.
