

the man did as Joseph ordered, and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.

<sup>18</sup> Now the men were afraid because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, "It is because of the money, which was returned in our sacks the first time, that we are brought in, so that he may make a case against us and seize us, to take us as slaves with our donkeys."

<sup>19</sup> When they drew near to the steward of Joseph's house, they talked with him at the door of the house, <sup>20</sup> and said, "O sir, we indeed came down the first time to buy food; <sup>21</sup> but it happened, when we came to the encampment, that we opened our sacks, and there, each man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight; so we have brought it back in our hand. <sup>22</sup> And we have brought down other money in our hands to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks."

<sup>23</sup> But he said, "Peace be with you, do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; I had your money." Then he brought Simeon out to them.

<sup>24</sup> So the man brought the men into Joseph's house and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their donkeys feed. <sup>25</sup> Then they made the present ready for Joseph's coming at noon, for they heard that they would eat bread there.

<sup>26</sup> And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed down before him to the earth. <sup>27</sup> Then he asked them about their well-being, and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?"

<sup>28</sup> And they answered, "Your servant our father is in good health; he is still alive." And they bowed their heads down and prostrated themselves.

<sup>29</sup> Then he lifted his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, "Is this your younger brother of whom you spoke to me?" And he said, "God be gracious to you, my son." <sup>30</sup> Now his heart yearned for his brother; so Joseph made haste and sought somewhere to weep. And he went into his chamber and wept there. <sup>31</sup> Then he washed his face and came out; and he restrained himself, and said, "Serve the bread."

<sup>32</sup> So they set him a place by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves; because the Egyptians could not eat food with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians. <sup>33</sup> And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth; and the men looked in astonishment at one another. <sup>34</sup> Then he took servings to them from before him, but Benjamin's serving was five times as much as any of theirs. So they drank and were merry with him.

He took up running in high school and qualified for the United States in the 5,000 m race for the 1936 Berlin Olympics, finishing 8th while setting a new lap record in the process.

In 1941, he was commissioned into the United States Army Air Forces as a lieutenant. He served as a bombardier in B-24 Liberators in the Pacific. On a search and rescue mission, Zamperini's plane experienced mechanical difficulties and crashed into the ocean. After drifting at sea on a lifeboat for 47 days, with two other crewmates, he landed on the Japanese occupied Marshall Islands and was captured.

He was taken to two different prisoner-of-war camps in Japan where he was tortured and beaten by Japanese military personnel—specifically by Mutsuhiro Watanabe—due to Zamperini's status as a famous Olympic runner. He was later taken to a new prison camp at a coal factory, and after much hardship, he was finally released. Following the war he initially struggled to overcome his ordeal, battling with post traumatic stress.

He later became a Christian evangelist with a strong belief in forgiveness. From 1952 onwards, he devoted himself to at-risk youth. Zamperini is the subject of three biographical films: Unbroken (2014), its sequel Unbroken: Path to Redemption (2018), and Captured by Grace (2015).
